TO: Ohio Cancer Registrars and Interested Persons

The Ohio Cancer Registrars Association has served registrars across the state since 1970. OCRA strives to be the premier source of cancer registry information and continuing education in the State of Ohio. Through the leadership and participation of our members, our association grows and promotes communication and networking opportunities for cancer registrars and other individuals that are interested in the cancer registry profession.

As an OCRA member, you join with other individuals who share your enthusiasm and commitment to your career and your profession. OCRA is dedicated to a collective goal—making your career a success. The OCRA Board thanks you for your continued support of our Association.

Membership in the Ohio Cancer Registrars Association falls into one of the following categories:

ACTIVE ($35.00):	An active member shall be any person who is employed in the Cancer Registry field who has paid the current dues to the organization.
ASSOCIATE ($28.00):	An associate member shall be any person interested in the purpose of OCRA, but does not meet the qualifications for active membership.
HONORARY (Free):	An honorary member shall be any person who has made a significant contribution to the Cancer Registry profession or rendered distinguished service in the profession or its related fields.
STUDENT ($5.00):	A student member shall be any person enrolled in a technical program or college level curriculum interested in the purpose of OCRA but does not meet the qualifications of active membership.
SUSTAINING ($30.00):	Those persons, institutions, organizations or vendors interested in promoting the principles and purposes of OCRA.

OCRA's 2023 membership drive is from December 1, 2022 through February 28, 2023. Your membership application must be postmarked by February 28, 2023 to take advantage of reduced registration fees for the 2023 OCRA Annual Meeting. Log into your online OCRA account to update your info and set privacy settings in how your information in the membership directory is displayed (networking purposes).

If your application is post marked by January 31st 2023 your name will be submitted into a drawing for free membership in 2024. There will be one lucky winner so join your state organization today!

Your active participation will make a difference in the way OCRA serves its members. If you have any questions about membership feel free to contact OCRA at OCRA@ohio-ocra.org for more information.
